

Second Thoughts
Judith Wright

31 October - 25 November 2023

Jan Manton Gallery is pleased to present Judith Wright's new exhibition Second Thoughts showing between 31 October - 25 November 2023. Second Thoughts sees Judith Wright pair her favourite medium, large scale works on paper, with new materials.

Wright has created her own chipboard substrate, infused with her signature sepia metallic pigments, set in playful found frames. These new works accent Wright's interest in gestural mark making, with a particular intuition for finding movement in the material.

Wright's unique approach to installation art, which combines sculptural elements with paintings in dynamic movement-focussed ways, is informed by her experience as a performer with the Australian Ballet.
